Dear Paolo, Allison and Ales,

I'd like to offer my personal congratulations to you and your team: At Wine & Spirits, we've selected Movia as a Winery of the Year.

Each year, our blind tasting panels review more than 10,000 wines and pass the best along to our critics. Our annual Wineries of the Year list is made up of brands who produce a range of wines that score at the top of their categories. Movia's performance makes it a great ambassador for the wines of Slovenia.

We will profile Movia as a Winery of the Year in our 2010 Annual Buying Guide (On sale mid-October); Christopher Hallowell, Associate Editor, will be contacting your company with an information request for this piece.

In addition, you are invited to attend our Top 100 event in San Francisco in October, where we honor all of our Wineries of the Year. We will be in touch with the appropriate people in your organization regarding participation details. We hope that you will join us.

With best wishes from the entire team at Wine & Spirits,

Joshua Greene
